Dr. R. E. O'Brien To Talk On Sex

On Tuesday, Jan. 29, the Fr. John Verret Council of the Knights of Columbus will present a lecture by Dr. Robert E. O'Brien.

The lecture, entitled, "Pre-Marital Sexual Relations, - Medical Aspects", will be given in Austin Hall at 8 p.m.

Dr. O'Brien, a resident of Winooski, is a well-known figure in the medical field. He is Assistant Professor of Clinical Medicine at the University of Vermont's College of Medicine. A specialist in diseases of the heart and lungs, Dr. O'Brien is a trustee of both the Vermont Heart and Tuberculosis Associations.

A Fellow of The American College of Physicians, Dr. O'Brien is also a Diplomate of the American Board of Internal Medicine as well as a member of numerous state and national medical societies.

Speaking here once before, Dr. O'Brien addressed a full house in the old Austin Hall plus the rest of the student body over WSSE.

The talk will be open to the student body and the general public.

Scribes Mass, Dinner Sunday

St. Michael's College plays host Sunday morning to area newspaper, radio and TV journalists. The occasion is the annual Journalists' Mass marked on the Sunday nearest the feast of St. Francis de Sales, patron of journalists.

The Mass in the college chapel will be the usual one at 11:30. Immediately afterward, St. Michael's president, Very Rev. Gerald E. Dupont, S.S.E., will welcome the guests at a brunch in the dining hall.

For the past 15 years, St. Michael's has marked the day in recognition of the importance of journalism and in gratitude to those who work in the field. Arrangements are being handled by Public Relations Director John D. Donoghue.

40 Foreign Students Receive Diplomas

Forty students of the special English program were given achievement certificates on Friday, January 25, in Austin Hall.

The students, of 19 nationalities, heard an address by Father Paul A. Morin S.S.E., Dean of Studies, on the future careers of the students. The faculty of the English program was also present. Awards were given for outstanding and meritorious work during their studies.

Of the 40 graduating students, 25 are leaving St. Michael's. Many of the graduates have the opportunity to continue their studies at colleges and universities throughout the United States.

Simon Mpondo, for instance, has been selected to study at Tufts University in Medford, Massachusetts. Simon, a native of Douala, Cameroun, is eager to begin his pre-med studies so that he can return home to work among his countrymen. His stay here "was a pleasant introduction to American life," but states Simon, "American students should fraternize more."

George Tatepo, also a native of Cameroun, Africa, will take up Agricultural Engineering at Purdue University. He intends to return to his homeland where this type of education will be of great use.

Armand Luhahi of the Congo will major in Physics at Wabash College in Indiana. Arba Nassor, a resident of Upper Volta, will travel to Bluffton College, Ohio to specialize in Electronics.

Dossa- Ayedjo Clement of Dahomey plans to make Veterinary Medicine his field. Others intend to study Economics, Statistics, Political Science and many other related subjects.

To replace the outgoing students, 25 more students are coming, eager to learn about English and America. They will be from the same geographical areas as our outgoing friends. Let's welcome them.

Debate Goes To Harvard; Has A Solid .600 Average

The Newman Debate Society of St. Michael's College opens its post holiday ~~forensic~~ schedule with a tournament at Harvard.

Teams representing the major schools across the nation will be competing in eight rounds of decision debate on the resolution that "THE NON-COMMUNIST NATIONS OF THE WORLD SHOULD FORM AN ECONOMIC COMMUNITY." Only two-man teams will be engaged for this debate, meaning that each team will speak four times negatively and four times affirmatively on the topic.

The St. Michael's team will leave January 30, for Boston in order to be rested for the opening rounds on the 31st.

Just prior to the holidays two teams, Tony Bothwell and Jim Elliot on the Negative; Joe Miller and Ron Atwater on the Affirmative journeyed to St. Anselm's for a three round Novice tournament.

The Bothwell-Elliot combination returned with three victories, balanced however by three defeats suffered by the negative. The total team average for the year still stands at a solid .600.

At a meeting of the English Club on campus, the society conducted a demonstration debate with club President Thomas Roney providing a commentary on the action of the argumentation and answering questions as they arose.

In the remaining two-thirds of the season, varsity tournaments will be conducted almost every weekend with all the action pointing to a culmination in the Regionals at Dartmouth where the nation al semi-finalists will be selected.

Bishop Joyce To Speak Here At D.E.S. Induction

His Excellency Robert F. Joyce, D.D., Bishop of Burlington, will speak on campus on Monday, Jan. 28, 1963 at 8 P.M., in the Playhouse. The topic of his talk will be "Some Aspects of the Ecumenical Council."

Bishop Joyce has just returned from Rome where he was a participant and eyewitness to the proceedings. His talk will follow his induction into the Alpha Nu Chapter, St. Michael's College, of the Delta Epsilon Sigma scholastic honorary society.

The topic of his talk will be of special interest to Catholic College students because of its infinite impartance and the world-wide effects that it will have. This importance was shown very explicitly when Time magazine recently named Pope John XXIII Man of the Year 1962 and carried a feature article on the Council.

On the same day, His excellency will be inducted into DES. Doctor Armand Citarella and Prof. George Fortune of the St. Michael's faculty and Brother Thomas Farrell, F.I.C., will also be inducted at the same time. Brother Thomas is president of Walsh College in Canton, Ohio and is an alumnus of St. Michael's having earned his A.B. and M.A. here.

Most Rev. Robert F. Joyce

The induction ceremony will be held at 5 P.M. in the chapel.

Following the induction there will be a banquet at Lincoln Inn in Essex Junction for inductees and their guests.

Delta Epsilon Sigma is a Catholic Scholastic Honorary Society which parallels Phi Beta Kappa, a top national honor society based on scholastic averages. Besides the above named inductees, there are 17 Seniors and two Juniors being accepted for membership.

There will be a question and answer period after the Bishop's talk and an informal coffee hour.

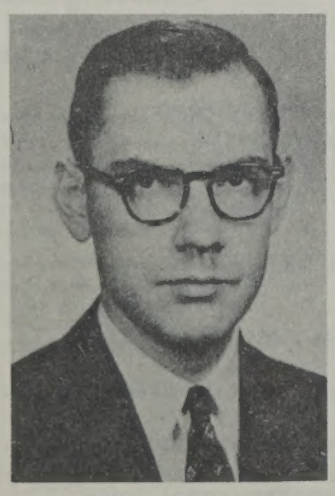
Mr. Tortolano To Conduct Comic Opera On Sun., Feb.3

On Sunday evening, Feb. 3, at 8 the Music Department of St. Michael's College will present a performance of Giovanni Pergolese's comic-opera, "La Serva Padrona (The Maid-Mistress)".

The event will be in the Playhouse, and is open to all students and residents of the Burlington area. There will be no charge.

Mr. William Tortolano, Chairman of the Department of Music, will be conducting the concert, which will feature Martha Tortolano, soprano, Bernard Barbeau, baritone, and Joseph Edward Dery, bass. Stage direction is being handled by Mr. Tortolano. Mr. Donald Rathgeb of the English Department will arrange the Scenic Design and Lighting.

The event will be the fourth in a series of on-campus musical presentations during the academic year; the most recent concert was given by Kenneth Amada, acclaimed concert pianist on Sunday, January 13th, to a full house in the Theatre.



Mr. William Tortolano

Fr. Duford To Conduct State In Life Triduum

To most people, the word triduum means absolutely nothing, and to many, it is unpronouncable. (By the way, the correct pronounciation is trih-doo-uhm.)

It is derived from the Latin meaning three, and its English application has the same meaning. The Triduum to be held here on campus will last three days, from January 31 to February 1. On the days of this Triduum there will be three Masses offered for those who wish to attend; at 7:30, 11:00, and 4:30.

The purpose of this Triduum is not, as many might believe, to recruit members for the Edmundites, or even for the priesthood. The purpose is to help you choose your state in life.

Fr. Gerard P. Duford, S.S.E., known to Freshman in his capacity as a Theology teacher, and to upperclassmen as the chaplain of the Knights of Columbus among many other things, will give a sermon at each of these Masses which will be intended to help you decided on your vocation in life.

This triduum is unlike a retreat, however, in that to complete it, it is necessary to attend only one of the Masses a day.

If any more information is sought, you are asked to contact Tom Colangelo, the chairman of the Triduum.

Integration Problems

Integration has been a problem in the South for many years. St. Michael's College has had its own "integration problems," but with one major difference. The problem is known to exist. Faculty and student leaders want to solve it. Much has been discussed with relation to it, but for some reason or other the problem still exists.

The problem: establishing better and closer ties between American and foreign students in the English for Foreign students program. The failure to communicate is the fault mainly of the American students although the foreign students share part of it.

Most of the foreign students come to St. Michael's in their first trip to the United States. The first impression of the United States and its people will be a lasting one. After their English training at St. Michael's, - the period ranging from six weeks to six months, - many foreign students complain that the only friends they have made are those other students in the same program as they are. They consider American students as unfriendly and indifferent. American students, on the other hand, retort that it is very difficult for them to make friends with the visitors because they are always in large groups and because of the language barrier.

The situation has been discussed among student leaders on campus, although not too much has been done positively to remedy this condition. With the appointment of Fr. Armand Couture as supervisor of foreign students and the new living quarters for foreign students, conditions have improved. But the integration problem will never be solved unless further action is begun. It is time to act.

Two of the measures suggested by student leaders could be tried. The major one will necessarily have to wait till school begins again in September. The other one could be worked out immediately.

First, let us consider the immediate proposition. Since early times, sports competitions have provided one of the most efficient means of promoting good will among nations. Sport facilities at St. Michael's are very limited, but this does not mean at all that they are non-existent. Some kind of arrangement should be worked out whereby foreign students may enjoy the full use of the facilities. This could include the lending to them of available equipment. Foreign students could be invited to compete in the intramural sports including them as another class. It is well-known that most of these students are very proficient in soccer. Exhibition soccer games with nearby colleges would not only provide foreign students the means to show their ability, but also the opportunity to travel and see more of the country.

The second suggestion, which we consider capable of attaining even better results, deals with the foreign students' dorm accomodation. Before the wooden barracks were eliminated this summer, foreign students used to mingle with the American students only in the dining hall area.

With the barracks gone, the foreign students are now occupying the second and part of the Third floor in Founders Hall. The rest of the third floor is occupied by Freshman in the regular course. Many of these American students have become acquainted with the foreign students and enjoy their friendship.

The suggested plan would have rooms set aside in each of the five dormitories for pairs of the foreign students to live in.

In this way the foreign and American students will have to get to know each other and the foreign students would have the opportunity of practicing English. Likewise, American students would be able to learn about the different cultures of these students.

At the present time there are 18 foreign students from 13 different countries in the regular course. These students are spread out in 10 of the 15 floors of the five dormitories. If foreign students meet any difficulty at the beginning because of the language barrier, they could always ask any of these other foreign students.

The students have made the proposals. It is now up to the Administration to complete the integration by trying these plans or improve upon them.

Let's have nations and students united at St. Michael's.

IN BRIEF

On Wednesday evening, Jan. 30 at 8, the Education Club will hear the Rt. Rev. Monsignor John A. Lynch, Superintendent of the Diocese of Burlington Parochial Schools, speak on the Carnegie Foundation. The meeting will be held in Alliot Hall and will be open to the public.

FROM THE LILLY PAD

by Bob Lilly

In the light of recent occurrences in the Dining Hall, two stories from old "Michaelman" copies might be interesting to note. In the February ninth, 1957 issue there was this quote: "Student Council moderator, Reverend James E. Coombs, S.S.E., talked to the members on the problem of the dining hall. . . ." and an another story from an April '55 edition states bluntly: "Tragedy Strikes Chow Hall" followed by the story which read in part: "Tragedy struck once again on campus last Wednesday when 83 1/2 Michaelmen died in their places at table during the noon meal. Police Coroner Inna Graves holds the theory that the deaths were caused by ground-up rusty tin cans which had been mixed up with the chicken soup. Fowl play is suspected."

* * * * * *

On a more serious note it seems that some so-called gentlemen on campus are, and have been for some time, very disrespectful and uncharitable to the ladies that work in the dining hall. The motions, actions and language are completely unnecessary, uncalled for and in a great number of cases outright disgusting. Believe it or not, gentlemen, these ladies demand our respect. Looking at this from another point of view, these actions bring admiration only from the ignorant. Others may laugh, but even these are few and lacking in common sense. Need more be said?

* * * * * *

Now that the basketball season is well underway, a quick rundown of St. Michael's once famous and feared "Polish Falcons" might be interesting. Bernie Cieplicki, Tommy Lemanowicz and John Wegrzynski made up this trio from 1954 to 1957. Some of the records that they hold are the most points in the three year period by one man. Bernie has this honor with a total of 1,139 points. Tommy scored 156 foul shots in the '54-'55 season and scored a total of 1,036 in three years (that final figure is total points scored). John, while not the scoring star that Bernie and Tommie were, was tremendous on defense. In one game against Norwich he stuffed twelve of the opponents' shots. He also scored 778 points in his career.

In 1956 the Air Force assigned a single engine air plane to the ROTC detachment at St. Michael's for the purpose of giving flight training to the advanced cadets. Just for the year, though, so don't get your hopes up on finding an old Navion in one of the garages on campus. '56 was a busy year. The Crown and Sword was also founded in that year.

Weekend Bands Announced

Winter Weekend co-chairmen Tim Moynihan and Art Kohler have announced that St. Michael's "Coachmen" and the "Starfires" of New York will provide the music Friday, Feb. 8. The weekend is scheduled for Feb. 8 - 10.

Entertainment on Saturday afternoon will be in charge of a four-piece band which is being provided by the Motel.

The "Coachmen" is a newly-formed trio of Michaelmen who have won the applause of those who have heard them. Formed less than a month ago, the trio, is composed of Senior Ron Van Yserloo and Freshmen Bruce Nolan and Michael Carroll.

The folk-singing group have already performed at the recently-held Freshman Dance and have been heard through one of the local radio stations.

Some Tickets for the weekend are still available and may be purchased for $6 in Alliot Hall between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m.

STUDENT FORUM

BY Bill Eagan

This week's meeting of the Student Forum was much calmer than the meetings of the last two weeks. There was no debate and all of the measures were passed without dissent.

Mr. Pat Bergin opened the meeting with an announcement that a Food Committee has been formed consisting of two members of the Student Welfare Committee and two of the regular students. This committee will handle, in Mr. Bergin's words, all "so-called" grievances concerning the dining hall.

This committee circulated a questionaire and the results have been tabulated in a five page report that will be used in a meeting with the proper authorities. A full report of the committees activities will be presented at the next meeting of the Forum.

Another announcement of interest was made by Mr. Dom Erba. The Student Forum will sponsor a used book sale in Alliot Hall from Jan. 24 to Jan. 28. Details will be supplied separately.

NEW BUSINESS

Mr. Jack Daly asked the Forum to appropriate $25 to the Education Club for the purpose of engaging a speaker. Since the Education Club has a "B" status, all money must be appropriated and not given in a budget.

The Inter-class Activities Committee was asked by Mr. Bill Batewell to investigate the possibility of providing some individual awards to outstanding players in the inter-class basketball league. If this would be possible, then awards for other sports would be in order, since inter-class receives such support from the general student body.

The N.F.C.C.S. representative, Mr. Powers, asked that the Forum write a letter to the regional headquarters at St. Anselm's to inquire as to the reason that St. Michael's was not notified of this year's regional convention.

Mr. Phil Rice moved that the Student Welfare Committee investigate the possibility of placing a spotlight on the steps in front of Alliot Hall. Since these steps receive considerable use he said, this measure would do much in the cause of safety.

50 Seniors Take Marriage Course

With their eyes set on matrimony, some 50 St. Michael's College Seniors have begun a 15 week course on Preparation for Marriage. Opening session for the extracurricular course started Monday night with a talk on "The Present Situation", by Rev. Nelson B. Ziter, S.S.E., director of spiritual affairs.

So many Seniors enrolled that two sessions have been scheduled one at 7 and one at 8:30.

Other faculty members assisting are: Dr. James Case, Dr. Robert Giroux, Rev. William Condon, S.S.E.; Rev. Dr. Robert Sheehey, S.S.E. and Dr. Edward F. Murphy. Dr. Clarence Bombard, medical director, and former municipal Judge Joseph McNeil will speak respectively on the medical and legal aspects of marriage.

INFERIORITY CAN BE FUN

The second gravest problem confronting college students today is inferiority feelings. (The first gravest problem is of course, the recent outbreak of moult among sorority house canaries.) Let us today look into the causes of inferiority feelings and their possible cures.

Psychologists divide inferiority feelings into three principal categories:

1. Physical inferiority.
2. Mental inferiority.
3. Financial inferiority.

(A few say there is also a fourth category: ichthyological inferiority—a feeling that other people have prettier fish—but I believe this is common only along the coasts and in the Great Lakes area.)

Let us start with the feeling of physical inferiority, perhaps the easiest to understand. Naturally we are inclined to feel inferior to the brawny football captain or the beautiful homecoming queen. But we should not. Look at all the people, neither brawny nor beautiful, who have made their marks in the world. Look at Napoleon. Look at Socrates. Look at Caesar. Look at Lassie.

We are inclined to feel inferior

What I mean is that you can't always tell what's inside a package by looking at the outside. (Sometimes, of course, you can. Take Marlboro Cigarettes, for example. Just one glance at that jolly red-and-white package—so bright and pert—so neat but not gaudy—so perfectly in place whether you are at a formal dinner or a beach picnic—so invariably correct for any time, clime, or condition—one look, I say, at this paragon of packs and you know it has to contain cigarettes of absolute perfection. And you are right! That pure white Marlboro filter, that fine, flavorful blend of Marlboro tobaccos, will give you a smoke to make the welkin ring, whatever that is. So those of you who have just been sitting and admiring your Marlboro packs since the beginning of the semester, why don't you open a pack and light one? Light a cigarette, I mean—not the package. Then you can settle back and smoke your Marlboro and, at the same time, continue to gaze rapturously at the pack. Thus you will be twice as happy as you are if that is possible.)

But I digress. Let us turn now to the second category—mental inferiority. A lot of people think they are dumber than other people. This is not so. It must be remembered that there are different kinds of intelligence. Take, for instance, the classic case of the Sigafoos brothers, Claude and Sturbridge, students at Wake Forest. It was always assumed that Claude was the more intelligent just because he knew more than Sturbridge about the arts, the sciences, the social sciences, the humanities, and like that. Sturbridge, on the other hand, was ten times smarter than Claude when it came to tying granny knots. But no matter; everybody looked down on "Stupid Sturbridge," as they called him and looked up at "Clever Claude," as they called him. But who do you think turned out to be the smart one when their granny almost got loose and ran away? You guessed it—good old Stupid Sturbridge.

We arrive now at the final category, financial inferiority. One way to deal with this condition is to increase your income. You can, for example, become a fence. Or you can pose for a life class, if your college is well heated.

But a better way to handle financial inferiority is to accept it philosophically. Look on the bright side of poverty. True, others may have more money than you have, but look at all the things you have that they don't—debts, for instance, and hunger cramps.

And what about friendship? You don't need money to have friends, and let me tell you something, good people: the older you get the more you will realize that nothing is so precious as friendship, and the richest man in the world is the one with the most money.

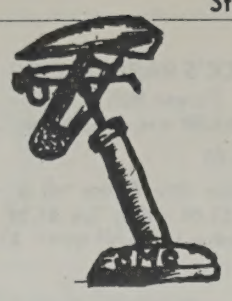
The Michaelman's Mike



by Mike Tranghese

Not until the past few years did any of the second or third teams receive mention but in the recent past many of the ball clubs, starting with Paul Deitzel's football Chinese Bandits, go and white teams, have the non-starters received notice.

Not to be outdone, St. Michael's College has come up with their own version of a so-called Chinese Bandit unit and they are known as "red shirts". This hustling unit, made up of Senior Dick Keelty, Junior John Jachym, Sophomores Brian Quinn and Danny Connelly along with Freshman transfer student "Jungle" Jim Dooley, are the boys who attempt to prepare the members of the starting unit by means of running through the opposing team's offensive patterns.

This may seem like a simple task and it is if they were to run through the patterns half-heartedly but this quintet not to be outdone takes pride in going all out against the starters.

Just ask the starters what they thought of the "red shirts" after they had defeated St. Anselm's. "Great" would have been their response. The "red shirts" for a week previous to the St. Anselm's game ran through their offensive patterns along with the taking of the names of the Hawks' starting players.

Dick Keelty was Dick Slade, Dan Connelly was Bill Agnew, Brian Quinn was Tony Greer, John Jachym was Myles Dorch and Al Daigle was impersonated by Jim Dooley. This may seem a bit fictional but to watch the closed practice sessions one would not have gathered that impression.

The last scrimmage previous to the St. Anselm's became so rough an enthusiastic that three minor injuries occurred. First Ed Kryger turned his ankle. Then Dick Keelty received an elbow in the eye and finally Marty King caught a punch in the leg. The teams are not out there to be killed but neither are they out there to be outdone.

When St. Anselm's started displaying their flashy offense around the Auditorium floor it was of no consequence to the starters as it seemed to them as if they were brought up against this type of offense. The "red shirts" could be thanked for this.

One would think that the "red shirts" would be highly outclassed in practice , but this is just not the story, as this quintet just will not listen for it must be proven to them that the first unit is better than they are. Up to now the "red shirts" have held their own and this has helped the ball club immensely in becoming more aggressive in the ball game.

If St. Michael's is fortunate enough to make the regionals at the end of the season, much of the credit should be placed upon the shoulders of this unit , but more than likely it will be not, so let yours truly in behalf of the starting unit and the coaching staff along with myself, take this opportunity to say thank you and congratulations for a job that is being well done.

Skiers Open Sunday With Practice Meet

BY Jim Kavanagh

This season the St. Michael's college ski team hopes to live up to its preseason expectations. The Purple Knight Schussers have completed a vigorous fall training program which included running, sprinting and many calesthenics.

Now the "slope-heads" are in the midst of practicing for the respective events; these events being slalom, downhill, cross country and jumping.

Vying for berths on the Alpine squad are Captain Gregg McClallen, Peter "Cassius" Sheehan, "Butch" Smith, Dennis "Killer" Haggerty and Gus Kupferer. All five of the schussers have boasted of previous competitive skiing.

Captain McClallen made a notable appearance last year for the Michaelmen as did Sheehan and Kupferer for the Freshmen ski team in St. Michael's Invitational. The two new-comers on the team, Smith and Haggerty, are expected to round out the Knights' quintet.

Trying out for the Nordic Squad are: Pat "Fitzi" Fitzsimons, Frank "Butcher" Gier, Jerry Gier, Dick "Whip" Handel, Andre "Pro" Couschene, and "Wilt" Tero.

A trial meet against McGill and University of Vermont has been scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, including giant and cross country Saturday at Jeffersonville and jump at St. Michael's Sunday at 1.

Saints Bow To Northeastern; Play LeMoyne Sunday Night

Baumann, McDonnell Honored

Fresh from their big comeback victory over St. Anselm's, the St. Michael's College basketball team travelled to Boston to face the powerful Huskies of Northeastern. Friday night, the 19th.

This game had as the victors the number one ranking team among the New England small colleges. It was favored Northeastern 62-56.

Northeastern, the defending New England small college champs found the Knights not ready to be outclassed or beaten. The Huskies jumped off to a quick 9-2 lead only to have the Purple come back to tie it up at 15 apiece midway through the first half. Then the Bostonians got hot and when the first half ended, the score was 37-28. Northeastern was beginning to show signs of overpowering the Knights.

St. Michael's opened the second half with a bang as they scored five quick points to pull within four of the Huskies. The next 12 minutes were filled with action as St. Michael's tried desperately to knot the score but Northeastern managed to hold on to the lead.

With but three minutes remaining the Knights pulled out all stops but it was to no avail as Northeastern was equal to the task. The final score was 62-56 in favor of Northeastern.

Northeastern which has not lost to a small college opponent as yet, pushed their record to 10-2 while the Saints record dropped to 6-3.

High point man for St. Michael's was 6'5" Dick Tarrant who had 17 points while dependable Eddie McDonnell had 16. Leading scorers for Northeasern and high point men for this tension-packed ball game were Bob Martin and Bob Solberg with 18 points apiece.

The St. Michael's College basketball team, sporting an overall record of 6-3, are preparing themselves for the upcoming must ballgames. The Knights who have aspirations of gaining a berth in the New England small college regionals especially after beating St. Anselm's and almost defeating Northeastern on their home court must win some of the big ball games that are coming up or else drop out of tournament consideration.

Leading the list of opponents who stand in the way of the Purple are LeMoyne, Assumption and Stonehill who also are sporting ideas of gaining entrance into the regionals.

St. Michael's will entertain LeMoyne in a rare Sunday ball game. Jan. 27, LeMoyne will be seeking revenge for last years 64-62 overtime loss to St. Michael's at Syracuse.

Six nights later the team will travel to Worcester, Mass. to play the powerful Greyhounds of Assumption who have two of the classiest frontcourt men the Purple will face all year. Steve Warner and Bill Jenkins, a pair of 6'5" leapers, will be out to gain revenge on the Knights who defeated them last year 59-56 in a wild ball game down at the Burlington Auditorium.

Finally we will play Stonehill college one of the newcomers to this years schedule. Stonehill which is located in North Andover, Mass., have already shown how tough they are. They beat powerful Adelphi by 19 while losing to Assumption by just one point.

These three ball games will go a long way in deciding whether or not St. Michael's will gain a berth in the regionals , but one sure way to avoid any problems is to win all three ball games.

Senior Walt Baumann has been named to this week's ECAC All-East College Division team.

Baumann received the honor more than once last year and has received several honorable mentions so far this season.

The Purple Knights' forward was included on the ECAC team on the basis of his performance against St. Anselm's Jan. 15. Baumann converted four foul shots in the final 20 seconds to lift St. Michael's to a 70-68 victory over the visiting Hawks.

Bauman's 19 point second half spurt helped overcome an 18-point St. Anselm's lead. Baumann is top point getter for the Knights with 148 points in nine games for a 16.4 average.

Junior Ed McDonnell Elizabeth, N.J., a 6'2" guard, also received an honorable mention in this week's team.

Others named with Baumann were Tom Pearsall, Albright; Paul Solberg, Northeastern; Nick Macarchuk, Fairfield; and Gary Hanley, Buffalo.
